MEDICAL.

Cincinnati Venereal Hospital,

Established in the year 1850,

FOR THE CURE OF PRIVATE DISEASES,

and under the control of two of the most eminent Physicians in the world.

DR. E. BONAPARTE, from London and Paris Hospitals, and for the past ten years of the Cincinnati Venereal Hospital, and Dr. F. S. Reynolds, late of New York. This is the only office in the city where a permanent cure of private disease can be obtained without the use of mercury or change of diet. Gonorrhœa cured in 4 to 6 hours. Gleet cured in 3 to 10 days. Stricture cured in 1 to 4 weeks. Nocturnal emissions stopped in 3 to 6 days. Seminal weakness cured in 2 to 6 weeks. Syphilis in its primary stages cured in 3 days. Second stage symptoms cured in 1 to 3 weeks. Skin diseases cured in 1 to 2 weeks. Impotency—the fearful result of 1 to 4 weeks. All diseases of a private nature treated with unparalleled success, male or female.

Dr. Bonaparte's great work on private diseases, the private guide to health, is beneficial to all, male and female, the old and young should read this book. It will enlighten those who grope in darkness. Price 25 cents, sent by mail.

Dr. Bonaparte's Celebrated Preventive never has nor never will fail—married ladies too, desirous of no children, except at the hazard of life, should be in possession of this invention. Price reduced to $5.

Dr. Bonaparte's French Patent Male Safe! It is perfectly safe, and never fails to give satisfaction. It is the only safe and sure preventive against pregnancy and disease. Ladies can use the French Patent Male Safe in the single one, $4 per hal dozen, $7 per dozen. Sent by mail.

☞ Madame Lozier's Female Monthly Pills are a safe and reliable remedy for suppressions and all female diseases. Ladies should not use them during pregnancy, as they will produce miscarriage. Price $1 per box—extra fine $5—sent to any address by mail.

Drs. B. & E. are the men to consult, they are unquestionably acknowledged to be the champions and leading of venereal diseases, and the only Doctors who receive monthly Reports from the old world; they have been astonished from an early age of youth to witness the various diseases which afflict mankind, and to watch the progress, through a long career of professional study, in every sphere of life, from the humble abode of poverty, to the mansions of the wealthy, and having ascertained beyond a doubt the vast suffering of humanity, they determined to select the generative system as their particular study, and to devote their whole attention to the alleviation of the diseases of these important functions of the human system, which are unnoticed unless they contain a remittance or a postage stamp.

I can recommend Mrs Limebaugh's Compound Sirup of Spikenard and Tar. I have been sick for a long time, have had several doctors, and they failed in my case I was very much troubled and had a severe cough. After using your medicine a while I was cured of my cough and relieved of my swelling. My complexion is good, and now I am doing my own work.

My youngest child has had cough for a long time, so severe that her breathbone was sprung from severe coughing in the shape of a chicken bone, but she is now well and looks well. She had been treated by the doctors for a long time but they all failed to cure her cough. Now she is well.

I will ever remain your friend.

Mrs. JULIA WILLS

LOUISVILLE, August 8, 1861.

MRS L. LIMEBAUGH.—Madame: I have used your Compound Sirup in my own case of deep seated bronchial hoarseness, with which I have been afflicted for upwards of twenty years, and am satisfied, after having taken three bottles, that it is an admirable compound for the relief of laryngeal and bronchial difficulties, for the three bottles I have used have relieved me more than anything I have taken, and I think it will cure me effectually if I continue to use it. If my opinion is of any superior character can be of any service, you are at liberty to use it as you think proper.

Rev. ELIJAH SUTTON.

Any persons suffering with any of the diseases mentioned above can be accommodated with board and good attention. I have desirable rooms for families or single gentlemen desiring private boarding.

Farms in Illinois—Farms for $1.000.

THE Illinois Central Railroad Company offer rich Prairie Lands adjacent to its Railroad at $1 per acre. A tract of eighty acres will make a good, comfortable homestead. The purchaser may buy on long credit, paying interest at six per cent. annually, and if he has one thousand dollars in money he can, this year, at the low prices of lumber, contract for a convenient house, fencing, and farming tools. The Company has sold over one thousand of such tracts of land this season. It is well known that Chicago sends more grain to market than all the Western lake ports inclosed. This is the best period of the richness and great value of the Illinois lands. The Illinois Central Railroad was finished in 1856, built through a sparsely settled country. It takes to market this year upwards of thirteen million bushels of grain, besides cattle, hogs, and many other products.

WHERE those afflicted with any form of Private Disease can receive prompt treatment without risk or exposure, viz: Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Ulcers, Tumors, Cancers, Secondary, and Constitutional Syphilis, Diseases of the Kidneys, etc. By this system it is proved that the venereal complaint is as entirely under the control of medicine as is a common cold or simple fever: and, while innumerable persons are daily sending away their patients in hopelessness, and giving report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent to any address in a sealed envelope, on the receipt of TEN CENTS or FIFTEEN COPIES FOR ONE DOLLAR.

them up only from their own inexperience, and pernicious and per anent cures are constantly being effected at this Infirmary.

YOUNG MEN, TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—Dr. H. devotes much of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret habit which ruins both body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for either business or society. The sad effect of these early habits, or the excess of riper years, are to weaken and debilitate the constitution, destroy the physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeeble the natural feelings, and exhaust the vital energies of manhood; the pleasures of life are marred, the object of marriage frustrated, and existence itself rendered a term of unceasing misery and regret. Such persons, especially those contemplating marriage, should lose no time in making immediate application, as Dr. H., by his new treatment, is enabled to insure a speedy and permanent cure.

DR. HALL'S AMERICAN PERIODICAL PILLS.—No article of medicine intended for the exclusive use of females has ever yet been introduced that has given such universal satisfaction as the American Periodical Pills. They can be relied on in all cases of Menstrual Obstructions, Irregularities, &c., as a sure and safe remedy. Price, per mail, $1 and one postage stamp.

Patients living at a distance can be cured at home by sending a description of their disease and inclosing a stamp.

Medicine sent to any address.

We have for the greater part of the past year, devoted our time in VISITING THE EUROPEAN HOSPITALS, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and on the Continent—such as CIVIALE, LENOIRE, RICORD, BRECHETEAU, ACTON, and CURLINGS, of the French and English hospitals. Our researches through Spain, France, Italy, Germany, Holland, England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, visiting in our route the principal hospitals in Paris, London, Rome, Venice, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, &c., &c. We have been amply repaid by the additional knowledge we have acquired in the treatment of various diseases to which we have directed our attention. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many NEW AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES which we have enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our PECULIAR department of professional practice.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1861.

☞The following from Gen. Anderson will quiet some unnecessary alarm that has existed here

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT } OF THE CUMBERLAND, }
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 24, 1861. }

The commanding General, understanding that apprehension is entertained by citizens of this State who have hitherto been in opposition to the policy now adopted by the State, hereby gives notice that no Kentuckian shall be arrested who remains at home attending to his business and does not take part, either by action or speech, against the authority of the General or State Government, or does not hold correspondence with, or give aid or assistance to, those who have chosen to array themselves against us as our enemies.

ROBERT ANDERSON,
Brig. Gen. U. S. A., Commanding.

☞All the loyal men of Louisville are delighted that Gen. Anderson has appointed Maj. Dent Provost Marshal of the city. The creation of the office was a necessity, and Mr. Dent, among hundreds of good men, is exactly the right man to fill it. His prudence, his sagacity, his industry, his energy, and his courage, are equal to this great exigency.

We have numerous traitors in the midst of us, men who are moving stealthily about in the darkness, holding consultations together, collecting and concealing arms and munitions, and making all arrangements to betray our city at the first opportunity into the hands of her enemies. Thousands of keen eyes should be daily and nightly vigilant to detect these men and to discover the evidence necessary for their conviction. Every patriot in the city, whether male or female, should act as a detective. All possible information in regard to suspicious movements among us, even to the minutest circumstance, should be gathered up and reported to the Provost Marshal, and it will be his duty to combine facts, and, in view of them, to adopt the proper action.

There is a conflict now in our city between skulking, cowardly, murderous treason, and bold, manly, devoted patriotism. The result of such a conflict ought not to be doubtful. It is not.

☞We publish to-day a communication lately made by Gen. S. B. Buckner to the Hon. Jas. Guthrie, President of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. It is as impudent a document as we ever read. It equals in impudence its author's late proclamation to the people of Kentucky. It is the cream of impudence.

Gen. Buckner tells Mr. Guthrie what his plans are in regard to the future management of the railroad. We ask, what right has S. B. Buckner to have plans as to the management of the road? What is he to the road, or the road to him? Who made him its manager? Is he the company, or a member of the company? Does he own the stock, or any portion of it? Have the stockholders ever voted that he should have the control of affairs or participate in it? Surely it is enough to make every Kentuckian's blood boil with indignation to see this vain and insolent military officer coming among us at the head of a band of renegades, erecting himself into a general dictator, claiming the right to overrule and insult our Legislature and all the other constituted authorities of the State, and assuming the management of all our concerns from the highest to the lowest. He deems himself the State, the State with a pair of epaulettes upon its shoulders, and he would make his will as supreme among us as that of a god.

Gen. S. B. Buckner sets forth his design to the President of the road, and says "with this view I have possessed myself of a considerable portion of the rolling stock of the road, and now propose," &c. Yes, he has possessed himself of the rolling-stock, a soft phrase to express the fact that he has seized it, seized and appropriated private property of immense value, by an act of open highway robbery. Robbery and theft he esteems among the prerogatives of the position he has taken. Murder he adds of course. He says he has seized the stock and assumed control of the road for the sake of the interests of the people, not caring to remember that the people may possibly think they have some right to choose the guardians of their own interests. He has taken the management of Green River also, blowing up the locks and dams with gunpowder for the sake, no doubt, of the interests of the people, and we may expect him to put forth his propositions in regard to the future navigation of the stream.

Gen. Buckner tells Mr. Guthrie that he may continue to run the road upon the condition that his agents and employees shall be secessionists, and upon certain other conditions named. Everybody knows, that, even if the Railroad Company could by any possibility be so base-spirited as to run the cars upon Buckner's conditions, there would be no safe travel for Union men upon the road. Even before his grand larceny of the rolling-stock and his armed occupation of Bowling-Green and Muntordsville, Union men at Elizabethtown and other secession points were torn from the cars and otherwise maltreated, and, if they should dare to avail themselves of any arrangements for travelling upon the route hereafter while Buckner and his forces retain their present positions, it would assuredly cost them their lives. No man, without a strong certificate of secessionism, could run the infernal gauntlet of the army of invasion.

Buckner says, that, in case Mr. Guthrie declines his proposition, he will transfer the rolling stock he has seized to agents appointed by the counties through which the road passes. The stock is not his except by the right of robbery, and he can transfer it to agents by no other right than that by which the robber distributes his plunder among whom he pleases. No agents appointed by the counties can have any right to accept the transfer of the rolling stock or to control that stock in any way whatever. It would be an open violation of all law, and none but the lawless will be guilty of it.

JOHN C BRECKINRIDGE IN THE WIND.—We learn from Mt. Sterling that on Friday morning, about 4 o'clock, a buggy containing two gentlemen and a negro boy passed through that town, stopping for a few minutes at the house of an ex-official, and took the State road towards the Virginia line.

Several gentlemen met the buggy on the road. One of the travellers was closely muffled, and, whenever they were about meeting any one, the negro boy raised himself so as to cover the muffled figure. One of the secessionists in Mt. Sterling revealed the fact on Friday that John C. Breckinridge had gone through on his way to Virginia or Tennessee. Lincoln's "Hessian clock" is forever eclipsed now.

The ex-official, at whose house the travellers called, was not in Mt. Sterling on Friday night. A number of the State Guard stole a portion of the State arms on Friday after dark and started on the road the buggy had taken. Perhaps they accompanied Breckinridge and his companion as a body-guard.

A CURIOUS DOCUMENT.—The following document was picked up in a street of this city yesterday morning. The paper containing the writing is about five inches long and two and a half wide:

GEN. S. B. BUCKNER—Sir: About 2,000 men arrived here to-day. We are about 1,200 strong in the county and city, ready to join you on your arrival here, which I hope is not at a very distant day. More arrests will be made here. So arrest all Union men you can get. We have chosen a leader here of whom you spoke to me about a few days before you left. We have but few arms, and have a great deal of trouble to keep them out of the hands of Pope & Co. I will be down in a few days. Mac is safe. Gen. Anderson is here. Send me a few blank commissions by the bearer.

Yours, &c. V. O. ✕ S 6 6

The signature is in cypher, and something is added in cypher below it. The document appears to have been written on Sunday evening. The 2,000 men referred to as having arrived were the Indiana and Ohio troops.

The writer says that the conspirators are "about 1,200 strong in the city and county," ready to join Gen. Buckner on his arrival here. They are a secret organization, and they have chosen a leader, who, it seems, was designated by Buckner himself before the latter left the city. This is another proof and illustration of Buckner's Satanic perfidy. He visited Washington city, represented himself there as loyal, ingratiated himself into Gen. Scott's confidence, obtained permission to inspect all the fortifications in that vicinity, made the Hon. Robert Mallory and others believe that he wished to take service in the army of the United States, returned to Louisville and remained for a brief period without giving the slightest public indication that he contemplated any disloyal movement, and yet at that very time, during that very sojourn in the midst of us, he held secret conferences with the conspirators here and designated a military commander to head them in the outbreak that had been agreed on. He was in our city, making all arrangements for its conquest.

It is now the business of our military and civil authorities to break up this secret organization of twelve hundred conspirators. The eagle eye and the strong hand must do the work. Let the guilty be punished, but let no hair of an innocent head be harmed. The writer of the note found in the street says that the conspirators have a great deal of trouble to keep their arms "out of the hands of Pope & Co." We may hope that "Pope & Co." will give them still more trouble. Let it be borne in mind by all good citizens that there are arms in the city concealed by traitors and would-be murderers, arms ready to be used for the destruction of all our loyal people as soon as the invaders approaching from the South shall arrive here upon their errand of vengeance. How long can those concealed instruments of murder be kept from the hands of loyal men? Not long, we trust. It is a matter of life and death to many—perhaps to thousands of us.

WHO IS HE?—An old gentleman of this city, being out at the encampment of the Indiana troops waiting for their guns this side of Oakland, saw some of the soldiers bringing water from a great distance. He pointed them to a brick house nearly opposite the encampment and about equidistant between the railroad and the plank road and asked why they did not get water there. They replied that they had gone there for it, and that the proprietor of the house objected to their taking it.

We will thank somebody to tell us who that man is. We should like to hold up to public scorn and abhorrence the name of a wretch who would refuse a cup of cold water to thirsty soldiers who have volunteered to come among us from a neighboring State for the defence of our soil. He deserves to be imprisoned in a den of serpents and never to hear any sound but their hisses.

TRANSPORTATION WANTED.—Gen. Sherman is encamped with a considerable force beyond Muldraugh's Hill. We understand that his troops are greatly in want of provisions, all the cattle, sheep, hogs, &c., in that region having been sent to the Southern troops.

There is said to be an abundance of provisions at Lebanon Junction, but from that point the means of transportation are wanting. Surely they ought not to be wanting many hours longer. A hundred wagons might be sent out from this neighborhood to-day. Let those attend to it whose business it is.

It is a sad thing to think that our brave defenders in this great peril should lack any of the necessaries or comforts of life for even a single hour.

☞Cincinnati has done nobly in supplying troops for the war. She has sent forth thousands. Six full regiments have marched from her streets to fight the battles of the Union, and there are dozens of companies besides, raised there, that have found their way into other regiments. And still the work of recruiting is in vigorous progress.

If Cincinnati has done so much without being invaded or even threatened, what should not Louisville do when the invader, with a heart full of hate and vengeance, is approaching her border? What citizen of Louisville can be inert now without being disgraced eternally?

ANOTHER REGIMENT IN SOUTHERN INDIANA.—We are gratified to learn that our friend Jno. W. Ray, Esq., of Jeffersonville, Ind., has been authorized to raise a regiment for the defence of Kentucky, to rendezvous at the famous Camp Joe Holt. The gallant Indianians are already reporting companies to Col. Ray, and, notwithstanding the large number already supplied, we have the pleasing intelligence that the regiment will be rapidly formed and ready for service in Kentucky. All honor to Indiana and her loyal and patriotic sons.

☞W. N. Stephens, captain of a company of Home Guards at Cropper's Depot, Shelby county, delivered up the arms of the company yesterday morning upon a requisition from the proper authority. Capt. Stephens is a secessionist, and it has been reported that he intended to take or send the arms to the Southern Confederacy, but he has said that he would use them gladly in defence of Kentucky against the Confederate invaders.

A VULGAR SCOUNDREL.—Some dirty miscreant in this city wrote a note to the postmaster at Madison, Ind., using the language of a blackguard in relation to the troops from that place and taking the signature of "G. D. P." with the evident design of causing himself to be mistaken for his betters. We have the note, and we will pay a handsome reward to any person who will identify the handwriting.

☞Some base villain, two or three days ago, sent out despatches under the name of a military officer of Louisville, calling upon the Union men to rally at a certain hour when a special train of cars would be sent out to bring them to our city, which was said to be on the point of being attacked.

If such hoaxes are repeated, it will no doubt become necessary for the military authorities to take the telegraph in charge.

☞Oldham county has promptly poured her quota of troops into Gen. Anderson's ranks, and she means to keep on pouring. What has Jefferson done? Her whole duty, or only a part of it? Who are they that stand back when Kentucky demands their help?

PROTECTION OF FRANKFORT.—On Monday night four hundred and fifty troops, of the Home Guards we presume, came from Lexington to Frankfort to remain there for the protection of the public property. They will be strengthened if necessary.

☞It is said that Humphrey Marshall has a body guard of six or seven hundred men. We should think that the guarding of that huge body of his would require at least an entire regiment.

S. B BUCKNER.—We commend this traitor to the hearts of all Kentuckians.—Democrat.

We would rather commend all Kentucky riflemen to his heart. Let that be the end they [illegible]

[Special correspondence of the Louisville Journal.]
CAPITAL HOTEL, ROOM NO. 40, }
FRANKFORT, Sept 21. }

On Saturday afternoon the new flag of the United States, ordered by resolution of the Legislature of Kentucky, was flung to the breeze from the dome of the Capitol. The interesting occasion attracted a large concourse of ladies on the public square, and though many of the members had left the Capital on their weekly home visits, the loyal men of Frankfort gathered in large numbers. Dr. Smedley, the vivacious Sergeant-at-Arms of the House, was the master of ceremonies, and he has Union spirit enough in his body to reanimate the effete carcasses of a thousand disunionists of the ponderous dimensions of Humphrey Marshall. The Doctor gave the word "up," and the splendid meteor stripes, with their white stars sleeping in a field of cerulean blue, rose to the masthead amid deafening shouts and a salute from the Home Guard, which turned out in fine force. Speeches appropriate to the occasion were made by Messrs. Yeaman and G. Clay Smith, of the Legislature, and excellent music interspersed the ceremonies from the Frankfort Cornet Band, now under the lead of Mr. W. D. Haly, as the exigencies of the war have made a demand upon the old leader—his uncle, I believe—who has attached himself to Col. J. S. Jackson's Cavalry Regiment. May the flag thus raised be the pledge of the unsullied loyalty of Kentucky and the harbinger of restored peace to the nation. I have referred to the Home Guard of this place. They are a noble body of men—young, full of ardor, and true to their country as the magnet to the pole. Whenever the drum taps you see them rallying to their muster place in their neat uniform of gray, while the perfect order of their equipments shows that they have attained the first soldierly lesson of keeping their arms well burnished and their cartridge-boxes clean.

I am glad to see that other counties are following the glorious example of Adair, and holding meetings irrespective of former party divisions, at which pledges are made to maintain the honor of the State. On Monday Garrard county spoke through a large meeting at Lancaster, and resolved that so long as there is a vestige of an invading foe on our soil, they will forget all former political differences of opinion, and unite as one man in defence of each other, their families, and their homes; that they pledge to each other their country and their God to expel from our beloved State the invaders of our soil or perish in the attempt; that they regard the invasion of Kentucky by Tennessee and the Confederate States as wanton and wicked, and without pretext or palliation, and they pledge their property, lives, and sacred honors that they will wage exterminating war upon the invaders and all who may aid them. I hope that every loyal county in the State will hold similar meetings, in the spirit of the resolutions which are published to-day in the Governor's Proclamation, and that a voice may go forth all over Kentucky like a clarion against our foes, while it will come like the "murmurings of a ring dova" breathing love and peace to our homes and firesides and neighborhoods.

In the House this morning Mr. Boone, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill providing that all surveys, maps, military places, &c., in the possession of any citizen or resident of the State shall be delivered up on the demand of a proper officer, under the penalty of fine from $5 to $5,000, and disqualification for office. Some legislation of this kind has been rendered necessary, I understand, from the defection of former officers of the State Guard, who in parting with their honor and loyalty have stolen all or nearly all the military maps belonging to the State.

Mr. Wolfe stated that the Committee appointed to wait on General Anderson and inform him of the request made by the Legislature that he should assume command in Kentucky, had no opportunity of reporting yesterday, and he therefore took the earliest occasion to-day to detail the result of their mission. The committee proceeded to Louisville, called upon Gen. A., and delivered a copy of the resolutions of the General Assembly. He replied by thanking the Legislature with great cordiality for the honor conferred upon him. He said he was deeply sensible of the responsibility which had devolved upon him, and, that, while he bora an undying love for the Union, he cherished the warmest attachment for his native State, and deeply deplored the necessity which called him to repel an invasion of Kentucky, conducted by men who were born in her midst and had drawn their nourishment from her bosom. He was prepared to do his duty sternly and calmly while his life lasted. Referring to the resolution which expressed the determination that no man should be molested for the sake of his opinions, and that private property should not be confiscated, he said that they represented his own personal feelings, and that he should regulate his conduct by them as far as possible, but he remarked that he was acting under his obligations to a higher authority to which he should yield implicit obedience, though he did not doubt that the spirit of the resolution would be fully recognized. So far as his own action was concerned he breathed the most friendly spirit towards the people of Kentucky, and he hoped that a returning sense of duty would unite all citizens of whatever party complexion they had been in the effort to expel the fiendlike spirit of party looking only to the elevation of this or that man to office, and devote themselves to the restoration of the peace of the State and the safety of her citizens. Mr. Wolfe said all the members of the committee felt acutely the glowing sentiments, and, standing here in the Hall of the House of Representatives, he hoped that all the differences which had heretofore existed in reference to political questions might be forgotten and that there was not a man in their midst who would not rally in defence of Kentucky and with all the energies of his heart and mind and strength resolve upon an undying devotion to the good old Commonwealth and an oblivion of the fell spirit of party. In reference to the man who had been called to the noble trust of leading our armies on the battle field, he could only say he was fully equal to and worthy of the trust. His qualities of heart, his patriotism, and his benevolence are the assurances that he will do nothing but his duty and that in the performance of that duty he would be actuated by the highest and holiest impulses, for in him the elements of the soldier, the gentleman, the philanthropist, and the Christian are so mixed up as if, in his character,

every God had set his seal
To give the world assurance of a man.

Mr. Burnam, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill providing for the raising of a volunteer force. This bill will be found in the regular report of the proceedings.

I heard a portion of a debate this morning in the Senate on Senator Pennybaker's bill providing that whoever has voluntarily joined, or shall hereafter voluntarily join, any military force that has or may hereafter invade this State, or shall give aid and comfort to any military force invading the State, shall be incapable of taking any estate in Kentucky by devise, bequest, descent or distribution. Some Senators feared the moral effect of such legislation, or that it would produce a retaliation, or thought that the punishment of treason, under the existing statutes, was sufficiently severe. Such gentlemen are dangerously fastidious, and would meet their foe on the battlefield with white kid gloves and exchange a gracious salute, while the foe ran them through the body. This rebellion must be met by vigorous measures. Treason is punishable by death or imprisonment, but to exact that punishment the traitors must be apprehended, tried, and convicted. This bill of Senator Pennebaker will have the effect to deter men from leaving Kentucky to take up arms against the State, or if they have left may induce them to return. The bill is right and it should become a law. Any one who leaves the State to join the Confederates is a marauding miscreant and should be debarred from all privileges under the laws of the State which he is endeavoring to obstruct. The men who have entered upon our territory, torn up our railroads, burned our bridges, blown up our locks, destroyed our dams, imprisoned, ill-treated, and murdered our citizens, and filled the bosoms of our wives, sisters, and daughters with apprehension, are outlaws, and should not have the benefit of any law of our State, directly or indirectly. They have insulted Kentucky in the very gravest manner, they have proclaimed that this Legislature mis-represents the popular will and has usurped powers not delegated to it, and now Senators would stop, cogitate, weigh, and balance the moral force of words when we want action and martial force. Scoundrels who have fled from the bounty of the State—who have been the recipients of its honors, and, if they have fame, obtained it from the reflected lustre of the name of Kentucky which they represented, are now striking parricidal blows at the heart of the Commonwealth. Shall we hesitate to take the most stringent measures against them and prevent them from enjoying the benefit of the laws they have outraged? I hope the Senate, which will meet this afternoon, will pass this bill without dotting an i or crossing a t. It is a law eminently proper to be placed on the statute book of Kentucky.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

WHEREAS, The following act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, cordially approved by me on the 20th instant, is the law of the land, I think proper, in the exercise of my executive duties, to make the same properly known to the public, as I do hereby, and I do hereby enjoin all citizens and residents of this State to be obedient to all the requirements thereof, to the end that the humane and noble purposes of the Legislature may be faithfully effected. The said act of the General Assembly is as follows:

Resolutions providing for the peace and quiet of the citizens of this Commonwealth.

Whereas, The people of Kentucky have, from the beginning, ardently desired and still cherish the hope that they may not be involved in the unnatural prevailing civil strife, that Kentucky is now, as she has ever been, willing and ready to interpose her friendly mediation in adjusting terms of peace and reconstitution alike honorable and just to all; but as her wishes to mediate and restore harmony may not avail at present, and it is very desirable that the people, in the mean time, should act in harmony and be at peace among themselves, so that if they shall be involved in war, they will, as far as possible, relieve and palliate its calamities; therefore—

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That if collisions between hostile armies shall take place within our territory, it is most earnestly recommended to the people of Kentucky not to engage in said strife amongst themselves on account of differences of political opinions; that it is the duty of the people to be obedient to the civil authorities, and respect, in times of war as well as peace, all the rights guaranteed to every citizen by the Constitution and laws of the land; that all good citizens, however they may differ in political opinions, should unite in protecting each other in their rights of life, liberty, and property, against all and every invasion thereof by unlawful raids, mobs, marauding bands, or other evil disposed persons, and aid the civil authorities in arresting all such persons and bringing them before the courts for trial.

2. Resolved, That we, the Representatives of the present General Assembly, hereby pledge ourselves to a strict observance of the foregoing resolutions, and earnestly recommend a like observance by all the people of the State of Kentucky.

In testimony whereof, I, BERIAH MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the seal of the State to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 23th day of September, in the year of our Lord 1861, and in the 70th year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor: B. MAGOFFIN.
THOS. B. MONROE, Jr., Secretary of State.
By JAS. W. TATE, Assistant Secretary.

HEADQUARTERS CENTRAL DIVISION OF KENTUCKY, }
BOWLINGGREEN, KY, Sept. 18, 1861. }

Hon. James Guthrie, President Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company:

SIR: It is my purpose to re-open the traffic, which has been recently suspended by direction of the President of the United States, on such portions of the Louisville and Nashville Railway as may be under the control of the forces under my command; and also to re-establish the running of the regular passenger trains. The counties through which this railway passes are largely interested in its stock, and are charged with heavy burdens to pay the interest on the debts which they have contracted in the construction of the road. The cessation of this traffic, under the orders of the President, was an act of injustice to the people, who were already sufficiently taxed; for it deprived the citizens of those counties of the very means relied upon to pay the largely increased taxation demanded by the policy of the Government. As far as rests in my power, I propose to secure to the people of these counties their just rights in this respect by permitting the traffic on the road to continue as it existed before the illegal interference of the President.

With this view I have possessed myself of a considerable portion of the rolling stock of the road, and now propose to you, that, as President of the Company, you continue the management of the portion of the road within the limits of the influence of the forces under my command, and conduct it, as before the existence of the war, in the interest of the people who are interested in its stock. I propose that you will continue your agents and employees, with the single restriction that they shall be men who are not inimical to the interests of the people of those counties, and that the stockholders shall enjoy all the benefits to which their railroad charter entitles them. In order to secure the rights of the stockholders, I have directed an account to be kept of the earnings and expenses of the road, including the amount to which the company will be entitled for transporting troops under my orders. This account will be rendered to you and the balance paid over, on the single condition that it shall be applied to the purposes contemplated by the charter. If the proposition should be declined, I propose transferring the rolling stock to such agents as may be appointed by the counties through which the road passes. This will insure an equitable distribution of the property of the road in the interest of the stockholders.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obt servt,
S. B. BUCKNER,
Brig. Gen. U. S. Army.

COL. HECKER'S REGIMENT.—It has not been our custom to chronicle the movements of troops near this city, but we can well afford to depart from the custom to note the arrival of the gallant Twenty-sixth Illinois Regiment, Col. Hecker. They reached this city by boat from Cincinnati at noon yesterday. Col. Hecker received marching orders at Camp Dennison, near Cincinnati, on Monday morning. The Gazette says that thirty minutes afterward the regiment was ready to move, but as the train of cars which was to bring them to Cincinnati had not then arrived, they were compelled to wait half an hour. Arriving in the city they found two boats at the landing, with steam up and everything in readiness to leave. Without any delay they marched on board, and three hours after receiving the order to move were twenty miles on their way! As remarked above, Col. Hecker's command arrived at this city yesterday afternoon, and were entertained on the grounds about the Courthouse until four o'clock, the hour of departure for Gen. Sherman's command, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. The regiment received marked attention while quartered in Court-house square, and chief among those who were most attentive was Capt. John Kohlkeep, whose military ardor is only exceeded by his social qualities. Col. Hecker made an eloquent address after the regiment had been drawn into line, which was warmly applauded, and the passage to the Nashville depot was nothing less than a triumphal march.

CAPT. GIBSON'S EXPEDITION.—We have received later advices from Capt. T. W. Gibson's command at West Point, at the mouth of Salt river. It has been stated that Capt. Gibson's pickets were driven in on Sunday night with a loss of four of the number. The missing picket all came into camp on Monday morning perfectly unharmed. The blights on the Indiana shore, opposite West Point, are occupied by a battalion of Home Guards, who have an affective battery of rifled cannon, which commands the Kentucky shore for a distance of three miles on either side of the town. When our informant left everything was quiet at the Point.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—The members of this large congregation continue to hold daily prayer-meetings. These meetings have been held daily for four months, and the unity and love of the members for each other has been greatly strengthened. On Thursday morning next, the congregation will observe fasting with prayer, and at eleven o'clock A. M. the pastor, Elder D. P. Henderson, will deliver a discourse on the duties of christians in the present crisis in the affairs of our nation. The public are invited to attend. Seats always free.

MORE PRISONERS.—No less than eight prisoners, charged with aiding the Southern rebellion, were brought up to the city yesterday from the line of the Nashville railroad, having been arrested by the Federal troops under Gen. Sherman's command. Their names are J. W. Roberts, W. E. Wright, F. H. G. Clayton, B. Florence, J. T. McFeet, S. H. Woolridge, G. P. Pusey, and James Bask. Of the number two were Captains in the Confederate army. The prisoners will be examined to-day on a charge of treason before a military commission.

NEW COMPANY.—Capt. Wm. Tweddla is forming a company in this city to be attached to Col. Geo. W. Anderson's Regiment. Capt. Tweddla joined the army in 1855, and has served with honor to himself and advantage to the country for a period of eleven years. His First Lieutenant, Mr. Wallace, has served in the army for a term of years; and was captain of a company in the Seventh Indiana Regiment in Western Virginia. They are both gallant men, and will lead those who follow them to glory and renown. Capt. Tweddle may be found for the present at the Union Engine-house.

ELDER D. P. HENDERSON.—We have been not a little surprised to learn that our highly esteemed and eminently useful fellow-citizen, the Rev. D. P. Henderson, has been confounded in the minds of some with the Rev. H. H. Henderson, the pestilent secessionist, who has been denounced in our columns. The Rev. D. P. Henderson, although it is true that he spent a few weeks in Georgia, is as true and fervent in his patriotism as he is in his christianity. He is one of the best of citizens as well as one of the best of men.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—We learn from the New Albany Ledger that Col. Manson, of the 10th Indiana Regiment, arrived in that city yesterday, to join his regiment now in Kentucky. In riding a spirited horse rapidly in order to get to the ferry-boat the animal slipped and fell on the flagging at the intersection of Pearl and Main streets, throwing Col. Manson and dislocating his wrist, and it is feared breaking some of his bones. The injury was very painful, but the gallant Colonel, after having it dressed, proceeded to join his command.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.—A grand jury was empanneled in this tribunal yesterday, which consists of the following gentlemen: George W. Meriwether, foreman; A. B. Semple, John Boggs, D. L. Beatty, S. K. Richardson, W. B. Belknap, G. H. Cochran, A. Pater, R. Cox, B. H. Thurman, R. A. Robinson, D. B. Leight, T. H. Crawford, M. Robinson, John A. Miller, P. M. Jones, W. Irvin, T. J. Amiss, and W. L. Welbe. Judge Catron gave the jury the usual instructions.

CAMP SHERMAN.—Among the additions to the forces at Camp Sherman within the past few days is the cavalry company under command of Col. Ruckstuhl, composed for the most part of Germans, who, like Colonel R. himself, have seen service. We have never seen a body of finer looking men. Captain L. M. Reed also placed the skeleton of his company in quarters yesterday. Col. Pepe's regiment is filling up rapidly, and with the very best fighting material.

☞ Very general respect has been paid to the proclamation of Mayor Delph, wherein he asked that the business houses of the city be closed at four o'clock each afternoon, thereby affording those employed therein an opportunity to perfect themselves in the army drill. The principal business houses on Main street were promptly closed at four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

FOR COL. WHITAKER'S REGIMENT.—A company of eighty-four men, from Oldham county, commanded by Capt. Lee, intended for the service in Col. W. C. Whitaker's regiment of Kentucky troops, arrived in the city yesterday and received their arms, all of which were of Colt's pattern of five-shooting rifles.

☞ Our gallant fellow-citizen Dr. Bush cheerfully tenders his valuable services to any soldier who may be left here for medical attendance. His office is at his house, on Walnut street, between East and Floyd.

SUPPLIES FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Dr. Goddard requests us to state that the Citizens' Subsistence Committee's supply of tobacco and cigars is exhausted. More will be thankfully received today.

☞ We would remind such of our readers as are interested in Dr. Hunter's movements that he intends closing his office at the Louisville Hotel on to-morrow afternoon, when he returns to New York.

☞ Thursday, the 26th inst., being the day appointed by the President for fasting, humiliation, and prayer, it will be observed in the Chestnut Street Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock A. M.

☞ Hereafter Lieut. Col. Jouett will spend his whole time at the encampment on the Fair Grounds, attending to enlistments and to the comforts of the enlisted.

FAST DAY.—The schools of the city will have recess to-morrow, the day of the National fast.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT NEWS.

The river is falling, with 4 feet 1 inch water in the canal. The weather is clear and pleasant.

At Pittsburg at noon yesterday the river was falling, with 4 feet 10 inches in the channel.

The Baltimore arrived from the Kanawha yesterday with a cargo of salt.

The Clara Dean arrived from and departed for Pittsburg, having a fine trip each way.

The splendid new steamer Major Anderson will leave for Cincinnati at noon to-day.

The popular steamer Grey Eagle, Captain Donally, is the regular mail and passenger packet for Henderson at the usual hour this afternoon. Our old friend Lusk has charge of the office.

VARIETIES—Mozart Hall.—We are requested to state that seats for the complimentary benefit to Mr. E. C. Bauer, on Friday evening next, at Mozart Hall, can be secured on and after to-morrow (Thursday) morning, at ten o'clock. The entertainment, we are assured, will be of the very highest order, and will embrace the entire musical and dramatic talent of the city.

NOTICE.—There was a meeting of the citizens of the Fourth Ward to organize companies for the Home Guard for city defense. The meeting adjourned to meet again on Thursday night at 7½ o'clock to perfect the organization. A full attendance of all Union men is desired at the Odd Fellows' Hall, corner of First and Jefferson streets.

SEIZURE OF GUNS. — No less than forty-four boxes of muskets were seized by the Federal troops at Elizabethtown and brought to this city yesterday by a detachment of troops from Gen. Sherman's command. They were addressed to "Col. Thos. H. Hunt, Louisville, by way of Nashville."

NEW REGIMENT.—A new regiment is to be formed on the Indiana border and located at Jeffersonville. Three or four companies are now ready to go into camp. John W. Roy has been designated as commandant of the camp.

☞ It will be seen from the Card of John Park Smith, of Jericho, that he denies certain reports in relation to himself.

☞ We learn from undoubted authority that Emmit Garvin had nothing to do with the burning of the Nolin bridge.

LETTER FROM GEN. HARLAN.

CAMP ANDERSON,
LEBANON JUNCTION, Sept. 24, 1861.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

I have just seen a letter published in this day's Journal and written by an "Officer of the Guard" from this camp, under date of the 22d inst. The writer takes occasion to compliment in quite high terms the company of Home Guards (Crittenden Union Zouaves) of which I have command. For this I thank him. But justice to others demands that I shall correct the following statement made by him, viz: "Capt. Harlan, of the Crittenden Zouaves is designated to drill the battalion to-morrow (Monday) at dress parade." I was not so designated, nor did I drill the battalion on Monday.

It having been suggested that the above statement from an "Officer of the Guard" might imply that the Major of the Home Guard Battalion was not at his post, or that, if here, was not competent to drill the Home Guard, I take great pleasure in correcting the error into which an "Officer of the Guard" seems to have fallen. And it affords me pleasure also to state that the gentleman who was detailed to act as Major of the Home Guard has been constantly at his post and in the discharge of all his official duties has given very general satisfaction.

Respectfully, JOHN M. HARLAN.

☞ KENTUCKIANS, Confederate troops under the plea of military necessity, have taken possession of your soil, torn up your railroads, blown up locks, burned bridges, insulted your citizens, and undertake to give a protectorate, by making a false assumption that your Legislature is misrepresenting your will. Are you willing to submit to these outrages? If so, the spirit that burned in the bosoms of your father has burned out; you are slaves and worthy to be slaves. But I know that the same spirit, that won the dark and bloody land and made our fathers victorious on many a hard fought battle field, still animates the bosom of their sons, and that spirit will not rest, until the last armed foe is driven ignominiously from our soil. Let us then, as one man, rise up and repel the invader. By the authority and for the service of the United States, I propose to organiza in Kentucky a regiment of infantry to serve three years or during the war, to consist of ten companies, each company to contain not less than eighty-four, nor more than one hundred and four rank and file. The Captains, and Lieutenants are to be elected by the companies respectively.

Captains of companies will report to me, as soon as possible, during the session of the Legislature, at the Capital Hotel, Frankfort. After the adjournment, at Westport, Oldham county, Ky. Transportation to the point of rendezvous will be furnished. No company must be removed from its point of organization until ordered into camp. None but active, vigorous men, and men of steady habits will be received. I know my countrymen will rally quickly to the defence of tima State, and for the noblest cause in the tide of time that man was ever called upon to defend.

RICHARD T. JACOB.

FRANKFORT, SEPT. 24, 1861.

ANOTHER REGIMENT.—Col. Sanders D. Bruce, as gallant a soldier and as loyal a gantleman as we have in our State, has nearly filled up another new regiment for the service of the United States. We learn that Charles S. Hanson is to be the Lieutenant Colonel and B. F. Buckner a Major. Five companies are ready to go into camp in a day or two, and two or three are nearly filled in Clarke. The chivalric sons of Kentucky who reside in tha contiguous counties, will, we are confident, respond promptly to the call of their country, especia ly when it is promulgated by one so universally known and respected as Col. Bruce.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WHEREAS, A Joint Committee of both Houses of Congress has waited upon the President of the United States and requested him to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer, and fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States, with religious solemnities, and the offering of fervent supplication to Almighty God, for the safety and welfare of these States, His blessings on their arms, and for a speedy restoration of peace;

And wherens, It is fit and becoming in all people at all times to acknowledge and revere the Supreme Government of God, to bow in humble submission to His chastisements; to confess and deplore their sins and transgressions in the full conviction that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to pray with all fervency and contrition for the pardon of their past offences and for blessing upon present and prospective action.

And, whereas, When our beloved country, once, by the blessing of God, united, prosperous, and happy, is now afflicted with faction and civil war, it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation, and in sorrowful remembrance of our faults and crimes as a nation and as individuals, to humble ourselves before Him, and to pray for His mercy—to pray that we may be spared further punishment, though justly deserved; that our arms may be blessed and made instrumentals for the restoration of law, order, and peace throughout the country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and religious liberty, earned under His guidance and blessing by the labors and sufferings of our fathers, may be restored in all its original excellence, therefore, I Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do appoint the last Thursday of September next as a day of humiliation, prayer, and fasting for all the people of the nation, and I do earnestly recommend to all people, and especially to all ministers and teachers of religion of all denominations and to all heads of families, to observe and keep that day according to their several creeds and modes of worship, in all humility and with all religious solemnity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation may ascend to the Throne of Grace, and bring down plentiful blessings upon our country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be affixed, this 12th day of August, A. D., 1861, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-sixth.

By the President: ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

A CARD.

JERICHO, KY., Sept. 23, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I wish through the columns of your paper to vindicate myself against certain reports that have gained currency to the effect that, on the day the munitions of war were shipped from Frankfort to Louisville, on their passage by Jericho, I said I would help to tear up the track of the railroad; also that I was riding all over the county urging men to go to the Southern Confederacy and saying I would furnish them with horses. Such reports must have originated in the minds of persons deeply steeped in prejudice and malice and have no foundation in truth. I was not at Jericho at the time. The whole fabrication must have originated from the fact that I am and always have been a sympathizer with the South in the unfortunate difficulties which now unhappily exist. I have lived to be almost three score years in Harry county, and never have I knowingly violated any law, either State or National.

TO THE YOUNG MEN OF KENTUCKY.

By the authority, and for the service of the Government of the United States, I propose to organize in Kentucky a regiment of cavalry, to serve three years or during the war, to consist of ten companies, each company to contain not less than eighty-four nor more than one hundred and four rank and file.

Horses and equipments will be furnished by the Government.

Volunteers owning good horses can have them appraised, mustered into the service, and paid for by the mustering officer.

The Captains and Lieutenents are to be elected by the companies respectively.

Captains of companies will report to me at the Galt House in Louisville as soon as practicable. No company must be removed from its point of organization until ordered into camp. Transportation to the point of rendezvous will be furnished. None but active vigorous men and men of steady habits will be received.

Capt. Richard W. Johnson, of the regular army, has been detailed to act as Lieutenant-Colonel. I intend to make this regiment in all respects equal to the best drilled and disciplined corps in the regular army.

I know this call will be patriotically answered. The soil of Kentucky has been wantonly invaded.

J. S. JACKSON.
LOUISVILLE, September 6, 1861.

RALLY, YOUNG MEN OF KENTUCKY!—We are authorized to raise a Company of Infantry, to be mustered into the service of the United States, to be called the Anderson Rifles, in honor of the hero of Fort Sumpter, and to compose a part of the regiment now being raised by Colonels Pope and Jouett and Major Campbell. The company will be composed of from 85 to 101 men. All who desire to unite with us can apply at headquarters, opposite the Hope Engine-house, on First street, between Green and Jefferson.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

SOUTHEASTERN INDIANA CONFERENCE.

FIFTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., Sept. 28, 1861.

Conference met and was opened in the usual manner, Dr Ralston leading the devotions.

Bishop Morris reported having ordained nine of the members as deacons. Seven members were reported as ordained elders by Bishop Simpson.

Reports of Committee on Periodicals and Sunday Schools received and filed.

On motion of Rev. James Havens, Rev. J. Mitchell was allowed to report some papers referring to the Jeffersonville Springs Seminary, which were referred to the committee raised on Saturday last.

The Committee on the State of the Country reported. They say in it, "We see no reason, in the acts of the Administration, to warrant the rebellion that now destroys the peace of the country. That it is the work of ambitious, bloody, and deceitful men, and, if it should prove successful, must utterly destroy the safeguards the fathers have so wisely thrown around the liberties of the people. We can see in the future no guarantee for the rights of conscience and free speech, save in the suppression of the rebellion and the holding of its leaders to the penalty provided by the law of the land. As ministers of Christ we deplore the existence of war. It is an evil always demoralizing, and yet we feel that, terrible as war may be, it is not so blasting in its effects as anarchy. Therefore—

Resolved, That we most heartily espouse the cause of the Constitution and its laws, and plead in our prayers, together with all the moral influence we may be able to exert, to the maintenance of the Government.

Resolved, That we find nothing in the acts of the Administration of the Government to call for a change in the 23d Article of religion as found in our Book of Discipline, and that we esteem it as a violation of the law of God for ministers or members of our Church to give aid and comfort to the rebellion.

Resolved, That we have read with pleasure the proclamation of the President, setting apart a day of humiliation, fasting, and prayer to Almighty God for the success of our arms and the restoration of peace to the nation, and that we recommend to all our people a strict observance of the day.

Resolved, That we have read with pleasure and hearty approval of the order of Major General McClellan in reference to the observance of the Christian Sabbath in the army.

The report was adopted by a rising vote.

Committees on the temperance cause and the Bible cause submitted their reports, which, after some amendments, were adopted. A desire to meet the exigency of the times in supplying the religious wants of the army and the friends of the soldiery is manifest in every report of the various auxiliaries of the Church.

Seven brethren, recommended from different charges, were admitted as members on trial.

Resolved, That the day preceding the meeting of each annual Conference be recognized as the day of examination for all of the classes connected with the Conference, and that the Friday succeeding the opening of Conference be recognized as the day of examination for all local candidates for deacons' and elders' orders.

The Committee on Education made their report. The four institutions under the patronage of the Conference were represented as having very flattering prospects. The report was, on motion, adopted.

Dr. Thos. Bowman, the President of Asbury University, Greencastle, made some remarks. This institution is the only one of its class in the M. E. Church in the State, and equally patronized by the four Indiana Conferences. It is regarded as second to none east or west of the mountains, as respects its classical course of instruction, and its entire general course is equal to the best in our Western country. A very considerable number of its graduates are now acting legislators in both State and nation, to say nothing of a number of teachers and ministers. The Doctor recommends the appointing more of the laity as "visitors" and "trustees" to this as well as other institutions, as a prudential measure.

After further interesting remarks, and an appeal to the members in behalf of the University by President Bowman, the names of agents and others recommended in the report were taken up. The following as trustees, to fill vacancies in the University, were by ballot elected:

Hon. H. C. Downey, for long term; Hon. J. McIntosh, short term; Revs. F. C. Holliday and G. C. Smith; Revs. Lathrop and Beaswick, together with the preachers of Moore's Hill, Aurora, and Dillsboro' circuit, were appointed as visitors to Moore's Hill Male and Female Institutes and to Indianapolis Female College, the presiding elder and preacher of Asbury charge.

The Steward's Report was read and adopted, and the apportionment of money to the superannuated, widows, and orphans, was parceled out and handed to each or their friends, for them. There was also $300 divided by the Preacher's Aid Society, among the necessitous cases, numbering eight individuals.

Conference adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock for the above purpose of revising and correcting their statistical tables, and then to meet at 7 o'clock P. M., for the closing up the business of the Conference.

LAST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Session opened in the usual manner, Rev. Jas. Crawford leading the devotions. The house was crowded and the exercises were unusually interesting, owing to the fact that the members were about to part from each other to go to the several appointments assigned them.

A resolution in favor of a worthy superannuated German preacher, he being inadvertently passed over in the Conference appropriations, was passed, making provision for his wants. The case of a needy widow of a deceased member came up, and $100 soon made up by the members for her necessities.

A motion was made that the report on the state of the country be published in the Church papers.

The constitution of the Southeastern Indiana Conference was read and adopted. The bishop and other subordinate officers were duly elected. The paper voted to be recorded in Marion county.

The Report on Memoirs was read and approved. The portion in regard to the two deceased members, Revs. Tucker and Heppen, of the Conferences, the past year, made the occasion solemn and interesting. Ministers of Christ who had labored hard in their calling, and, before reaching even middle life, 'ceased at once to work and live." The remarks of members in respect to their late associates were very affecting, moistening nearly every eye. On the adoption of the report, at the suggestion of the Bishop, an appropriate verse or two was here sung.

The Committees of Examination for the ensuing year were announced.

The thanks of the Conference to the citizens of Jeffersonville for their entertainment of the preachers, and for favors shown them by the different railroads and steamers, was given by a rising vote.

Rev. Hibben asked for and received a local relation.

The minutes of the Conference were ordered to be printed.

Rev. John F. Wiley was elected to Elder's orders.

The reading of the journal was called for. After reading and correcting, the Bishop proceeded to close the Conference. After singing and prayer and some very affecting remarks by Bishop Morris, the following appointments were read out, and the preachers at once departed for their several fields of labor:

Kentucky Cider-Mill.

AS the season has arrived for making Cider, and the crop of Apples abundant, I am again prepared to furnish this popular CIDER-MILL. Apples are hand and money scarce, we are confident that no farmer who has apples will allow them to rot on the ground when he can for so small a toll procure a Mill by which he can turn his apples into money, in addition to having a fresh glass of cider every morning to help drive away the terrors of the times. We warrant our Mill to run lighter, grind faster, and press harder than any other Mill now offered to the public. Have no grinding, call and examine it.

WM. B. WILSON,
Successor to G. W. Bashaw,

Change of Firm.

T. SHANKS & CO. have associated W. A. GAILBREATH with their firm, and purchased the stand of SMITH & OMER, on south side of Market street, below Floyd, where they will conduct the WHOLESALE and RETAIL GROCERY and PRODUCE business. Connected with their house they have a good WAGON-YARD, with ample accommodations for horses, feed, and other vehicles, and would be glad to see their old friends.
